

"After completing my Bachelors in Germanistik, I started doing theatre full time. Having worked in more than a total of 30 plays, I worked largely in children's theatre starting off as an actor in The Balancing Act, a gibberish play by IAPAR, India (the Indian branch of ITI). I have explored pedagogical techniques through theatre, language didactic and performing fiction for children."