

The 2 minute video is an artistic speech about performing escapist fiction for children and young adults as a medium of overcoming the issues faced by them in the current times. As a performer that works with children, Anushka Vaze has found that the said topic is very relevant in today's young and she would love to explore it more in her future projects as well.