

Charles Yee (he/him) is a Chinese-Filipino artist-educator from the Philippines. He is currently finishing his MFA in Directing at the California Institute of the Arts as a Fulbright scholar and as an Asian Cultural Council Grantee. He is interested in creating and sharing spaces with those who are socially, culturally, and politically marginalized while seeking new perspectives in the redefinition of who the Filipino can be. His works have been presented at the Cultural Center of the Philippines, the Ateneo de Manila University, the Philippine Educational Theater Association, the University of the Philippines, as well as in the U.S., Taiwan China, Malaysia, and Vietnam.
